| Notes | Source: (1) Buchholz, Godula. "Karl Buchholz. Buch- und Kunsthändler im 20. Jahrhundert." Cologne: DuMont publishing house, 2005. Karl Buchholz, one of the four main art dealers under Hitler, settled after the war in Bogota, Colombia. It is possible that he arranged for looted Judaica to enter Colombia, especially as part of his gallery that he set up in 1952. It is likely that no research thus far has focused on Mr. Buchholz's art dealings in Colombia. | |
