

Country Name	ROMANIA
Existing Projects
Known Objects
Information taken from looted cultural property databases
Information taken from publications	1) Source:  In Search of Jewish Art in Romania and the Ukraine.  http://cja.huji.ac.il/NL12-romania-ukraine.htm, last visited on 14 February 2007. It is known that there are Torahs, etc. in government hands. A number of ritual objects are located at the Jewish Museum in Bucharest that were originally collected by Rabbi Rosen during his period as Chief Rabbi of Romania. Of particular interest are the parochot (Torah curtains), Torah crowns, pointers and rimonim (Torah finials), of which some were made in typical local styles. 2) Source:  Benjamin, Lya. "Jewish and Jewish Related Documents in Romanian Archives". Preserving Jewish Archives as Part of the European Cultural Heritage: Proceedings of the Conference on Judaica Archives in Europe for Archivists and Librarians. Kuperminc, Jean-Claude. Arditti, Rafaële (ed.). Potsdam, 1999, 11-13 July, Paris: Éditions du Nadir de l'Alliance israélite universelle, 2001, pp 146-153. The National Archives in Bucharest holds documents relating to Jewish history. In addition, Jewish holdings are being kept by the archive of the Foreign Ministry as well as by the Defense Ministry (most of these archival holdings are relevant for Romania's Jewish history during the Holocaust). Please note that while it is known that these archival sources are being held in Romanian archives and museums, it is not known if or how much of this material was spoliated during the Holocaust.
Information taken from other sources
Historical Commission	1) Source:  http://www.ushmm.org/research/center/presentations/features/details/2005-03-10/, last accessed on 28 August 2007 In 2002, Romanian President Ion Iliescu appointed an independent International Commission on the Holocaust in Romania, chaired by Nobel Laureate Elie Wiesel, to research Romania's role during the Holocaust. In November 2004, the final report was presented to President Iliescu.

Notes	The organization Menora – The Authority for the Restoration of Diaspora Synagogues to Israel is currently working on bringing 192 Torah scrolls from the following Romanian communities for necessary repairs to Israel: Klusch, Targo, Borish, Yassi, Dorochoi and Shatz. All of these 192 Torah scrolls were initially stored in the basement of the Jewish Community Center of Bucharest.
Selected Bibliography	→ Please note that the general literature may also contain information on the specific country. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Ancel, Jean. Toldot ha-Shoah: Romanyah. Jerusalem: Yad Vasehm, 2002</li> <li>▪ Ancel, Jean. “The German-Romanian Relationship and the Final Solution”. Holocaust and Genocide Studies 19.2 (2005), p 252-275.</li> </ul>
List of Experts	→The general contact list of experts in the field may be relevant for the specific country. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Rabbi Menachem Hacohen, Chief Rabbi of Romania</li> </ul>